TERMS

Orders must be accompanied by a deposit of 1/3 to hold scheduled production date and guaranteed price. No more money is due until construction begins.

If requested, purchasers are notified in writing within five days of receipt of their order the estimated construction date. An additional 1/3 payment is due on this date. Failure to meet this payment schedule will necessitate reallocating construction to the end of the then current schedule.

The balance is due upon completion, acceptance and loading for shipment. The customer is requested to be present or have an agent present to inspect his vessel prior to loading. If the customer cannot make such arrangements Roberts Kit Boats will provide the names of local Marine Surveyors who can act as the customers agent.

DEPOSIT REFUNDS

Hull, deck and bulkhead deposit will, upon written request by customer, be refunded in full at any time prior to notification of assignment of production number and date. After notification the purchaser will, upon written request, receive a 95% refund with the remaining 5% being retained by the manufacturer as full compensation for costs incurred in said cancellation.
